THE WASHINGTON COINS.

During the period extending from the War of Independence to the year 1805, a number of coins and medals were struck, bearing the head of Washington. They are but little known to the community at large, and some of them are of great rarity, even among collectors.

I subjoin a list of these pieces, adding from the source mentioned, a number which I have not in my collection.

I trust that some of your readers may not find it uninteresting to glance at a description of these relics of the preceding half century, showing us, as they do, the gratitude felt by the contemporaries of Washington, for the great services rendered his country, as well as the veneration in which his name was held, both at home and abroad.

No. 1—1776. Bronze, from the same die as the gold medal presented by Congress. Undraped bust, head to the right. Legend—"Georgio Washington supremo duci exercitum adsertori Libertatis;" exergue "Comitia Americana." Reverse—Washington and Staff on Dorchester Heights; in the distance the British evacuating Boston. Legend—"Hostibus primo fugatis," exergue "Bostonium recuperatum XVII Martii MDCCCLXXVI."

2—1783. Cent size—laureated head, Roman costume. Legend—"Washington and Independence," date below. Reverse, legend—"Unity States of America," "one cent," enclosed in a wreath.

3—1783. Obverse resembling the last. Reverse, Liberty seated, in right hand staff and Liberty cap; in left a laurel branch. Legend—"United States."

4—1783. Another variety of the last, with smaller letters and initials of the sinkers and designers, under the figure.

5—1783. Smaller bust, in military costume, legend like last with initials under the figure.

6—1783. Another variety of the last.

7—No date. Of the same size and style as the foregoing, is what is called the "double headed Washington," bust in military costume; legend, "Washington," below the head a star edge beaded; reverse, the same, with "one cent," in place of name.

8—1786 Bust in Continental uniform, legend "Non Vi Virtute Vici." Head to observer's right. Reverse, Liberty, or Justice, seated. In right hand staff and liberty cap, in left a pair of scales; legend "Neo Eboracensis," date below. Struck in New York, and very rare.

9—1791. The celebrated Washington cent. Finely executed head and bust, looking to observer's left; military costume, hair dressed in style of the time, drawn back to a queue. Legend, "Washington President," below date. Reverse, large spread eagle, holding in its beak a scroll, with "Unum e pluribus," in one claw an olive branch with thirteen leaves, in the other thirteen arrows, on its breast a shield with thirteen bars and spaces; above the head "one cent;" around the edge, "United States of America."

10—1791. Obverse similar to last, without the date. Reverse, a small eagle with upraised wings. Stars and clouds about the head; "one cent" above; six arrows in one claw, and olive branch in the other; date below.

11—1791. Obverse like No. 9. Reverse—a ship under sail. Legend—"Liverpool Half penny;" below, two olive branches crossed; around the edge, "Payable in Anglesey, London or Liverpool."

12—1792. A piece in size midway between a dollar and half-dollar. Head and bust: military costume, as above, but sharper in the features. Legend—"G. Washington, President I;" date below; milled rim, and ornamented edge. Reverse—a large eagle with upraised wings, shield on its breast, fifteen stars about the head, six arrows in one claw, and an olive branch in the other. Legend—"United States of America." This piece and the one following are of great rarity.

13—1792. Smaller size, bust in same dress, somewhat heavier in the feat-

255. Webster Medal

37 — 1792. The Washington half dollar, so called; die same as No. 12, but struck in silver.

38 — Another Washington half dollar. Obverse same as last; reverse large spread eagle, with very large shield on its breast; one claw holding 13 arrows, one with laurel branch and 13 leaves; legend, "United States of America." This piece has a flaw passing diagonally through the centre, occasioned by the breaking of the die.

39 — Very large medal, head similar to No. 1, but facing left; legend, "George Washington." Reverse, signing of the Declaration of Independence; legend, "Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776."

40 — 1797. Larger medal, like No. 22.

41 — Head to right, short hair; legend, "G. Washington el. General of the Contin'l Army in America;" reverse, trophy of cannon and implements of war, — surrounded by legend, "Wash. reunit par un rare assemblage, les talents du guerrier, et les vertus du sage." *

42 — Small medal, with hair in style of George IV., poor likeness, looking to right; legend, "George Washington." Reverse, in parallel lines, "Natus Virginia in America Fœderata An. MDCCXXXII, Obiit. An. MDCCXCIX. Series numismatica universalis viro- rum illustrum, MDCCCXIX."

The following pieces are in the collection of J. Colburn, Esq., of Boston:

43 — Head with close hair, marks of age, looking to the right, legend, "George Washington ob. 14 Dec'r, 1799. Æ. 68." Reverse, oak and laurel wreath, with arrows; legend, "The hero of freedom, the pride of his country, and ornament of human nature, 1800. Late President of the United States of America."

44 — Head in Roman style, hair bound up with a fillet, well executed piece, but poor likeness; legend, "Washington, President," date 1792, below. Reverse, a tall, singular looking eagle, with upraised wings, 13 arrows in one claw, olive branch in the other, six stars about the head, above "cent." Very rare piece.

The description of several medals, which I have never met with, I copy from C. B. Norton's "Literary Letter," No. 3, as follows:

45 — Obverse, bust in citizen's dress, straight face, bad likeness; legend, George Washington. Reverse, inscription in parallel lines, "General of the American armies 1775. Resigned command 1783. Elected President of the United States 1789. Reëlected 1793. Resigned 1797."

46 — Death of Washington. Diameter about 3 inches. Obverse — Head of Washington crowned with a wreath. Legend — "George Washington." Reverse — tomb and urn, over which a child is weeping, and at its side an armed female, with United States shield, also weeping. On tomb — "Victor sine clade," arms, &c., behind. Legend — He is in glory, the world is in tears. Exergue — "Born February 11, 1732, died December 14, 1799. (Issued at Newburyport, Mass., at funeral celebration. Designed by Dudley A. Tyng; executed by Jacob Perkins.)

47 — Bust on a pedestal, on which is depicted a ship sailing, a man plowing, military trophies, &c. On right of pedestal, Liberty; on left, an Indian chief. Legend — "Gen. Geo. Washington, Presi. of the Unit: Sta." Exergue — "Born Feb. 1732; died Dec., 1799."

48 — Small piece. Bust — in regimentals, likeness not good. Legend and reverse same as Boston medal.

49 — Washington and Franklin. Obverse — Busts side by side, the former in regimentals. Reverse — An eagle descending with an olive branch and thunderbolts toward the globe, on which are the outlines and inscription of United States, 1783. Designed by J. Sanson, of Philadelphia; engraved by Reich. A. S.

BROOKLINE, Mass., Feb. 10, 1859.

* Struck at Paris, in 1778, by order of Voltaire.

ures; legend, "Washington, President," date below. Reverse, a spread eagle like No. 9, but in place of one cent over the head, are twelve stars in line, and one on bird's crest.

14—1792. Obverse like last. Reverse inscribed in parallel lines, "General of the American Armies 1775, Resigned 1783; President of the United States, 1789."

15—No date. Like the last, except that around the obverse is legend, "Geo. Washington, born Virginia, Feb. 11, 1732."

15½—Same as No. 15, but struck in silver.

16—1793. Obverse like No. 10. Reverse, a ship under sail, with word "halfpenny" above, and date below.

17—1795. Head to right. Similar dress, forehead more prominent; legend, "George Washington." Reverse, a shield with stripes and stars, surmounted by an eagle, holding arrows and an olive branch, and wings raised; legend, "Liberty and Security," date below. Around the edge, "Payable at London, Liverpool, or Bristol."

18—1795. Penny size. Head similar to No. 9; legend, "George Washington." Reverse like last, date omitted. Around the edge, "An Asylum for the Oppressed of all Nations."

19—1795. The same piece struck in brass.

20—1796. In citizen's dress, hair somewhat more wavy. Head to right; date below. Reverse inscribed in concentric circles, "Gen'l of the American Armies, 1775. Resigned the commission 1783. Elec'd President of the United States, 1789. Resigned the Presidency, 1796." Enclosed in a beaded circle a cannon and bundle of fasces crossed on a caduceus and a scroll with "Repub. Ameri."

21. Another, like the foregoing, but thinner, and in place of date, legend, "Born Feb. 11, 1732, died Dec. 21, 1799."

22—1797. In citizen's dress, head to right; legend, "G. Washington, Pres. Unit. Sta." Reverse, pedestal with shield, draped, supporting the sword, fasces, and olive branch; legend, "Commiss. resigned. Presidency relinq.;" date below.

23—1800. Small silver medal, head to left, —surrounded by a wreath, military costume; legend—"He is in glory, the world in tears." Reverse, a draped cinereal urn, with G. W. around it: the legend—"B. F. II. 1732. G. A. Arm. '75. R. '83. P. U. S. A. '89. R. '96. G. Arm. U. S. '98. Obd. D. 14, 1799." This piece was also struck in white metal and in gold.

24—1800. The reverse was a skull and cross bones instead of the urn.

25—1803. Head to the right, in very plain dress, and marks of age in the features; legend, above, Washington, on either side of bust, dates of birth, and death. Reverse a beautifully executed figure of Fame flying across the sea, on which a ship is sailing, and the sun in the horizon; legend, "Wisdom, Virtue and Patriotism," date in exergue.

26—1805. A Large Medal bust in armor, very finely executed, looking to left. Legend. "General Washington Inscribed to his Memory by D. Eccleston Lancaster, MDCCCV." Reverse in concentric circles. "He aid the foundation of American Liberty in the XVIII Century. Innumerable Millions, yet unborn, will venerate the memory of the man, who obtained their country's freedom." In the centre an American Indian leaning on his bow, an arrow in his right hand, and legend, "The land was ours." Struck in England.

27—A half-penny bust in uniform, to the left; legend, "Georgius Washington." Reverse a harp, legend, "North Wales."

28—Piece known as the Manly or Blacksmith's medal, very aged features, legend on obverse, and reverse same as No. 15.

29—In citizen's dress, poor likeness, legend, "Gen'l George Washington." Reverse, legend enclosed in a wreath of two branches crossed—"Born Feb. 22d, 1732, died Dec. 14, 1799."

30—Head to right, citizen's dress, poor likeness; legend, "George Washington, Esq., late President of the United States of America." Reverse, a wreath with 13 stars, pierced by a bunch of 13 arrows. Legend—"Made commander-in-chief of the American forces the 15th June, 1775. With courage and fidelity he defended the rights of a free people. Died Dec. 14, 1799, aged 68."

31—A small brass piece, size of a quarter of a dollar—head to right, military dress, Legend—"George Washington." Reverse—an eye with diverging rays, and 13 stars. Legend—"Success to the United States."

32—The same, half size.

33—Washington button, size of half a dollar; around the edge "long live the President," in centre "G. W."

34—Another button. A circle of 13 rings, containing the initials of the 13 States. Around the centre "Long live the President;" in centre "G. W."

35—A large brass badge, or button, bust to left, in uniform. Legend—"General Washington;" 2½ inches.

36—A small piece of silver, struck from Washington's private bullion on the first establishment of the mint, 1792. Obverse—head of Mrs. Washington, date below. Legend—"Industry Lib. Par. of Science." Reverse—flying eagle. Legend—"Half disme." United States of America.
